

Workshop on legal aspects of geographic data and spatial data infrastructures

19 March 2010

Interdisciplinary Centre for Law and ICT,
Leuven

Welcome!

Introduction and planning of the day

- The Interdisciplinary Centre for Law and ICT (www.icri.be)

- The Spatialist-project (www.spatialist.be)

Introduction and planning of the day

- The logistics
- The agenda

Agenda

First session 9:45 – 11:15 Privacy and security

- Jos Dumortier (K.U.Leuven, TimeLex) – Privacy and Personal Data Processing: the Perspective of the EU Regulatory Framework
- Kevin Pomfret (LeClairRyan, Centre for Spatial Law and Policy) – Three pillars of privacy in the United States
- Discussion

Agenda

Second session 11:30 – 12:45: Intellectual property rights

- Chris Luton (British Geological Survey) – BGS - Managing the UK Government's Drive to make Public Spatial Data Public
- Harlan Onsrud (University of Maine, GSDI) – Open Access Licenses & Lessons for a Creating a Global Marketplace in Geographic Data
- Discussion

Agenda

Third session 13:45 – 15:15: Competition and public-private sector relationships

- Karen Donders (Vrije Universiteit Brussel) – Defining the public task or so-called ‘public service remit’ of public broadcasters
- Michael Nicholson (Intelligent Addressing, PSI Alliance) – Who’s data is it anyway?
- Discussion

Agenda

Fourth session 15:30 – 16:45: The future of research and practice on legal aspects of geographic data and SDI

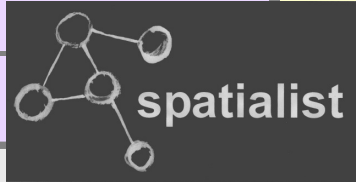

- Andrej Osterman (European Commission) – Legal aspects of PSI - the Commission's perspective
- Discussion

Objectives

- Insight in current legal frameworks and current legal issues encountered in research and practice
- Insight in relationship with different legal domains
- Priorities for future research and policy

Please introduce yourself!

First session

Privacy and security

Jos Dumortier

Kevin Pomfret

Second session Intellectual Property Rights

Chris Luton

Harlan Onsrud

Third session

Competition and public-private sector relationships

Karen Donders

Michael Nicholson

Fourth session

The future of research and practice on legal aspects of geographic data and SDI

Andrej Osterman

Wrap-up

Wrap-up

- Report
- Book

Wrap-up

- Report
- Book
- Next edition: 18 March 2011!

Have a safe trip home!

